

PRES. EULOGIZES GEO. WASHINGTON IN RADIO TALK

Asks American People to Accept Responsibilities

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—President Coolidge in a radio address delivered tonight from the White House, combined with a tribute to Washington an appeal to the American people to accept the responsibilities and continue the sacrifices necessary to make enduring the institutions which Washington founded.

Mr. Coolidge described the part played by Washington in the founding of the American government and declared he accepted the responsibility of accepting the responsibilities and making great sacrifices.

"If we are to maintain the institutions which he founded, if we are to improve what he created, we must be like-minded with him, we must continue to accept responsibilities, we must continue to make sacrifices," the president said. "Under all the laws of God and man there is no other way."

The address was delivered by the president in his study in the White House and was made by invitation of the International Rotary Club, members of which recently asked that the president deliver an address today in anniversary of the founding of the nation.

"Each year the birthday of George Washington gains wider acceptance as being of more national significance," Mr. Coolidge said.

"In other lands far off people are observing this day by taking thought of the qualities that give Washington this foremost place among the truly great. They are drawn to this man by his calm and clear judgment, by his unshakable courage, and by his unselfish devotion. Beyond that which was ever accorded to another mortal, he holds rank as a soldier, a statesman, and a patriot. Others may have excelled him in some of these qualities, but no one ever excelled him in this three fold greatness. Yet Washington, the man seemed to stand above them all. We can best estimate him by the testimony of his own life. He is a man by thinking him as he is, not as we would like him to be. His greatness lies in the fact that he was successful in calling them to the performance of a higher duty. He showed them how to have a greater liberty by earning it. All that any society can do, all that any government can do is to attempt to guarantee to the individual the social, economic and political rewards of his own effort and industry. The America which Washington founded does not mean we shall have everything done for us but that we shall have every opportunity to do it."

MILITARY PRISONERS IN FT. LEAVENWORTH ARE GIVEN HEARING

Investigation Comes from Appeals for Reconsideration

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Feb. 22.—(A.P.)—Twenty-four military prisoners including 22 of the Houston rioters, were heard at the federal penitentiary here today by Major James Stanfield and Major E. K. Ross, members of the special clemency board appointed by the war department.

Prisoners appeared before the board one by one and told why they sought clemency and detailed their plans for civilian life.

The names of the prisoners who appeared were withheld and the hearing itself was behind closed doors.

Majors Ross and Stanfield said they did not know who had taken the initiative in the present investigation but assumed that the war department had taken cognizance of the appeals from the American Legion, the War Mothers and similar organizations.

Such organizations, they said, have asked review of the military cases pointing out that clemency has already been granted all I. W. W. and others convicted under the sedition and sabotage laws.

Asked whether they would make a blanket recommendation for clemency the army officers merely pointed to their orders, which ask for "a general and detailed" report of their cases.

The Houston rioters whose cases were heard today were negro members of the Twenty Fourth Infantry at Camp Logan, Houston, Texas. The rioters are said to have started over the attempted arrest of a negro woman by a white policeman and the shooting of one of the infantrymen. The prison records of the fifty-four rioters now confined here, Warden W. I. Biddle said, on the whole, are excellent. Seven sentences were commuted because of good behavior. No effort is being made to refer the cases to the clemency board.

The prisoners, who were allowed to appear in order, appeared in groups as they left the hearing room.

The clemency board is reviewing the cases of all military prisoners serving terms of five years or more.

There are 229 military convicts in the federal prison here of whom 175 were sentenced by courts martial in time of war for crimes ranging from minor offenses to murder.

From here the officers will go to Fort Jay, N. Y., where ten or more military prisoners will be heard. Approximately ninety men were heard at Atlanta, Ga., early this week.

SENATOR GREENE NOW SEEMS TO BE ON WAY TO FULL RECOVERY

Condition Seems Better Than at Any Previous Time

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Senator Frank L. Greene of Vermont, shot down a week ago by a stray bullet fired in a battle between prohibition officers and suspected bootleggers, apparently strengthened his grip on life today.

Physicians believed his condition was better today than at any time since he was taken to the hospital, although they said that no definite prognosis could be made at this time. The senator is now taking nourishment.

United States District Attorney Gordon continued today his personal investigation into circumstances surrounding the shooting and expects to complete his inquiry by tomorrow or Monday. Legal action is being withheld pending the outcome of the senator's fight for life. Three men are out on bail in connection with the shooting.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 22.—George P. Christensen, Democratic National committeeman for Washington, today informed the Tacoma Ledger that he had resigned as Washington manager of William Gibbs McAdoo's campaign for the Democratic nomination. He said he was resigning solely because many Washington Democrats desired him not to become involved in factional differences within the party.

DIFFERENCES IN OPINIONS SHOWN ON RESIGNATION

Daugherty Appears in Senate During Retirement Debate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Marked differences developed between Republican senators and the Republican national organization over the retirement of Attorney General Daugherty today with the attorney general himself continuing to defy those who would have him resign.

Chairman Adams of the Republican national committee formally expressed his cause to serious question when he declared without hesitation that the integrity of the government would be maintained by the retention of Attorney General Daugherty.

The Republican organization, he declared, will insist that no verdict of guilty shall be pronounced until undisputable evidence of guilt has been produced. The statement follows in part:

"The integrity of a former Republican cabinet official has been called into serious question because he accepted money while in office from certain oil interests. The reputation of the government is being damaged by the retention of Attorney General Daugherty. The Republican organization is deeply affected because they received money from the same oil interests as hire for their political influence with their own administration."

Later in a formal statement he gave notice that the Republican party organization would insist that Mr. Daugherty be proven guilty of wrongdoing before any sentence be pronounced.

Unchanged in their opinion by the announcement of the party organization view Republican senators went ahead with their plans to support the move to bring about an investigation of the administration of the attorney general. The resolution for the investigation introduced by Senator Wheeler, Montana, was approved during the day by the senate audit committee and will be called up for discussion and a vote next Monday. Senator Wheeler will support for the chairmanship of the investigating committee. Senator Brookhart of Iowa, a member of the La Follette insurgent group who has been opposed from the first by Senator Lodge and other leaders of the Republican organization.

Daugherty Appears

Coincident with these developments in the controversy over Mr. Daugherty's retention of office, the cabinet officer appeared unexpectedly in the senate today and spent a brief half hour in the chamber among those who are demanding his resignation.

Just before Senator Willis, Ohio, concluded the customary reading of Washington's address Mr. Daugherty left his seat in the rear of the chamber and conferred briefly with Senator Fess, Republican, Ohio.

Senator Wheeler came into the reading and Mr. Daugherty was immediately pointed out to him. He said later that it was the first time he had seen the cabinet officer and added:

"I think the fact that Mr. Daugherty came on the floor of the senate today makes it more necessary than ever that I have the investigating committee which I have proposed. I hope he comes to the senate Monday."

Senator Wheeler does not anticipate extended debate on his resolution and expects it to be adopted Monday. The fight over the chairmanship may be prolonged.

MERCHANT MARINE GAINS 13 SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The privately owned fleet of the American Merchant Marine made a net gain of 13 ships, exclusive of tankers, aggregating 83, 178 gross tons during 1923. It was shown today in figures made public by the shipping board. The report covered only vessels of 1,000 tons or more.

The increase brought the total number of vessels under private operation to 766 displacing 2,302,651 gross tons. Of the total tonnage under the American flag, 2,285 vessels of 1,136,812 tons, the report showed the government owned 1,288, of which 68.4 percent were idle on January 1. Private operators owned 1,097, of which 15.5 percent were unemployed.

NEW YORK GOVERNOR JOINS WITH NEWSBOYS

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Governor Alfred E. Smith returned to his youthful haunts today to help 12,000 New York newsboys celebrate Washington's birthday. The occasion was the 25th annual dinner at Bruce Memorial Newsboy's House in the old Bowery.

Feet upon roast chicken with trimmings of ice cream, the lads, ranging in age from five to sixteen noisily welcomed the executive who was recruited from their ranks. He told them:

"It does not mean anything for you to cheer Washington unless you also do the things he stood for. The governor said, 'I give more than forty cents to the newsboys and I tell the boys that the highest conception of liberty was understanding of what must not be done to interfere with the rights of others.'"

Daugherty Is Upheld By Chairman Adams

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Chairman Adams of the Republican National committee tonight publicly joined the issue with those of his party leaders in the senate who are demanding the immediate resignation of Attorney General Daugherty.

"This is not the time," he said, in a formal statement, "to yield to the threats of those who are conducting this campaign of political terrorism or to the demands of those who are frightened by such methods."

The Republican organization, he declared, will insist that no verdict of guilty shall be pronounced until undisputable evidence of guilt has been produced. The statement follows in part:

"The integrity of a former Republican cabinet official has been called into serious question because he accepted money while in office from certain oil interests. The reputation of the government is being damaged by the retention of Attorney General Daugherty. The Republican organization is deeply affected because they received money from the same oil interests as hire for their political influence with their own administration."

Later in a formal statement he gave notice that the Republican party organization would insist that Mr. Daugherty be proven guilty of wrongdoing before any sentence be pronounced.

Unchanged in their opinion by the announcement of the party organization view Republican senators went ahead with their plans to support the move to bring about an investigation of the administration of the attorney general. Senator Brookhart of Iowa, a member of the La Follette insurgent group who has been opposed from the first by Senator Lodge and other leaders of the Republican organization.

SOLICITOR GENERAL SUPPORTS DAUGHERTY IN COLUMBUS SPEECH

States His Belief That No Wrong Has Been Committed

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 22.—Denouncing the effort being made in Washington to oust Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, James M. Beck, solicitor general of the United States in an address at the annual observance of University Day at Ohio State University today rose to his defense, and expressed confidence in his integrity and honesty.

Altho the solicitor general spoke briefly his remarks apparently met with the approval of his audience, as attested by the applause which followed his statement that "during my whole official and private association with Mr. Daugherty I have always held him in the highest esteem and vouch the belief that he never done an unjust or questionable thing in administering the office of attorney general of the United States. No one has a monopoly on virtue or frailty," said Mr. Beck. From the beginning of our country there have been scandal in government and there have been virtues. In a time like the present when there is confusion and when wild charges fly freely it is well to remember the injustice of ignoring the great mass of faithful public servants.

"The heart of the people is sound and it will not tolerate wrong doing in high places of any man or party," he concluded.

WORK ON TUT TOMB CLOSED FOR WINTER

CAIRO, Feb. 22.—(A. P.)—Pierre Lacau, of Egyptian antiquities department opened Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb this afternoon in the absence of Howard Carter. The sarcophagus was found undisturbed and two hours were spent in making an inventory of its contents.

Mr. Carter failed to accept the invitation to be present at the opening of the tomb, but arriving at an agreement and then decided to adjourn until Monday in order to consult the mon.

AU mails from the United States brought by the scowmen America and Nieuw Amsterdam now have reached London and are being distributed. No further trouble on this head is expected. Several liners, however, had to cancel their outgoing and are owing to the impossibility of getting loaded by tomorrow.

PREFERS CALIFORNIA FRIENDS TO PRESIDENCY

Pasadena, Calif., Feb. 22.—William G. McAdoo who passed thru here late today on his way home to Los Angeles, in a brief speech from the train platform made this statement:

"I have this to say and I say it with real meaning. I would rather have California friends or live in California, than be president of the United States."

HANISBURG CHOSEN FOR JUDICIAL CONVENTION

Quincy, Ill., Feb. 22.—The Republican committee of the first supreme judicial district embracing more than forty counties in Southern Illinois at a meeting at Carbondale today selected Hanisburg, Illinois, as the place for holding the judicial convention on March 12.

SAYS NEWSPAPERMAN OF TODAY HAMPERED IN WASHINGTON NEWS

OSSINING, N. Y., Feb. 22.—The shadow of business on the newspaper and the circumscription of the work of newspapermen impeded the nation's stream of information, Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, declared in an address here tonight.

"We are in the extraordinary period of our time," he said, "as I see it we need above all else today a clear understanding of the facts. We want to know what is the truth. We want an unimpeded stream of information. I do not think we know the facts in Washington. There had been a vast change, so far as newspaper reporting is concerned, since he was in Washington as assistant secretary of the treasury, Mr. Vanderlip said.

"Today, no newspaperman in Washington has the freedom of sending news he had in my day there. So we have the shadow of business on the one side, and circumscribed work of newspapermen on the other.

"We need the facts. We need a dynamic public opinion which is going to demand action.

"There are men among my old associates who say: 'It may be bad but keep quiet about it. Put on the extinguisher. You are going to hurt business, you're going to interfere with stock quotations.' But the flame has spread too far for minor considerations to act as a check."

BRITISH DOCK STRIKE IS NOT YET SETTLED

LONDON, Feb. 22.—(A. P.)—The confidence felt yesterday of an early settlement of the dock strike changed to renewed apprehension today when it was learned that the decision which the employers offered had to be referred to the strikers themselves.

A delegate conference sat nearly eight hours today without arriving at an agreement and then decided to adjourn until Monday in order to consult the mon.

AU mails from the United States brought by the scowmen America and Nieuw Amsterdam now have reached London and are being distributed. No further trouble on this head is expected. Several liners, however, had to cancel their outgoing and are owing to the impossibility of getting loaded by tomorrow.

INSURGENT 'PROTEST' MEETING IS CALLED

Chicago, Feb. 22.—A "protest" meeting in which insurgent Republicans, senators and representatives at Washington will speak on the oil investigation and other administration affairs, is scheduled here some time next month, following action taken today at the Illinois state conference for Progressive political action.

A committee appointed today will go to Washington with invitations to Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin and Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa and Representative John M. Nelson of Wisconsin to address the meeting the date to be fixed at their convention.

TWO AMENDMENTS PASS HOUSE BY NARROW MARGIN

Would Make All Returns Subject to Full Inspection

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The House Democratic-Republican insurgent coalition wedged another amendment into the revenue bill today, that will make tax returns subject to inspection by certain congressional committees.

Another amendment adopted by a one vote margin will open corporation tax returns to the inspection of state officials regardless of whether the state imposes an income tax as the law now requires.

This pair of amendments developed the major controversial issues of the day.

Both drew fire from the Republicans, Representative Mills, New York, charging that "this piecemeal destruction of the revenue bill is not only leading to complete distortion of the measure but to destruction of the income tax law itself."

He charged the measure was being made an instrument of politics, adding that "instead of bringing relief for the taxpayers it is going to harass them."

Representative Wingo, Democrat, Arkansas, in reply denied that amendments thus far adopted had done more than bring relief to a greater number of taxpayers, and declared he would "rather be charged with political motives than personal interest in framing a revenue bill."

More Changes

Additional changes in the measure were tentatively agreed upon at a meeting of a few members of both parties on the ways and means committee. These would increase the estate or inheritance tax and impose a gift tax.

Representative Longworth, the Republican leader who yesterday advanced a new compromise on the income rate schedules, declared tonight he expected eight or nine of the 17 Republicans who supported the Democratic plan to vote for the subject of an opponent is afforded when the bill is up for a final vote. The Republican compromise fixes the maximum surtax rate at 37 1/2 percent instead of the 44 percent now in the bill, and decreases the normal rate on incomes below $4,000 to two percent, the rate now in the bill, but would make it six percent on incomes above $4,000. It would allow no increased exemptions.

Delay encountered in debate on numerous minor amendments, few of which were adopted upset considerably the plans of leaders to a final vote by next Tuesday.

Estate taxes and probably the excise taxes will be taken up tomorrow. Representative Fearr has served notice also that tomorrow he will propose re-enactment of the excess profits taxes. The amendment opening tax returns specified that they should be inspected only by the house ways and means and senate finance committees and special congressional committees. It was adopted 158 to 100.

Fearr Amendment Fails

Previously the house rejected 158 to 80 an amendment submitted by Representative Fearr to make the tax returns open to inspection by anyone. Under the rules governing as to other public records.

Representative Garner and other Democrats, as well as Republican leaders opposed this as an safeguarding sufficiently the records, although declaring it was preferable to no provision for publicity on returns whatever.

Representative Hawes, Democrat, Missouri, declared the amendment would destroy the privacy of the home.

"It means we are having a new government in the United States," Mr. Hawes said, and referring to the efforts of insurgents added, "it seems that Wisconsin is ruling the house and ruling the senate."

Mr. Fearr in arguing for his amendment insisted that publicity on returns would prevent evasions.

Representative LaGuardia, Republican, New York, who voted with the insurgents for the Garner income rates made public a letter to Secretary Mellon in which he asked if a compromise of his own would raise sufficient revenue for a bonus.

He suggested a maximum surtax of 40 percent and normal rates of two and five percent. If such a plan would not raise revenue for a bonus, he asked the secretary what rates would.

HOIDS REVIVAL IN BARBER SHOP

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 22.—In order to interest more people in his revival meetings, Rev. R. F. McDaniels, is holding afternoon meetings at the village barber shop at Chestnut near here. The meetings in no way interfere with the work of barbering as the hair cutting and shaving proceeds during the services.

UNSUCCESSFUL TRIAL AT ALTITUDE RECORD BY LIEUT. MAC READY

Fails to Reach Mark Set by Frenchman, Sadi Lecoq

DAYTON, Ohio, Feb. 22.—For the second time within two months the United States today failed to wrest the world's aviation altitude record from France. Lieutenant John A. MacReady, McCook flying ace and former holder of the title aroused hope that the honor would return to America, when he pushed his Lepere biplane to an indicated height of 41,000 feet but subsequent calibration of his instruments reduced this to 34,983 feet—far set by the Frenchman, Sadi Lecoq.

While Lecoq's actual altitude was less than 37,000 feet MacReady must have attained a height of 37,855 feet to have broken the record. A recent ruling requires that any new record also as to whether he had talked one before it becomes official.

MacReady attributed his failure today to two causes—a breakdown of his supercharger, the mechanism which permits his engine to operate in rarified atmosphere and to the extreme cold.

When his instruments registered an altitude of 41,000 feet with the engine apparently running perfectly, there was a sudden snap he said which shook the plane from end to end. He prepared to make a parachute jump, he said, but found that it was the supercharger and was able to bring the ship to the ground.

At this height his thermometer had failed to register after touching 60 degrees below.

MacReady estimates it was much colder as he had climbed some distance after noticing that his thermometer had stopped registering.

So far as his personal condition was concerned he could have gone higher, MacReady declared, but his engine was useless after the supercharger had failed. He had two frost bitten spots on his face and his feet were numb by the cold but otherwise he was comfortable in special clothing.

He probably will make no more altitude attempts in the Lepere ship officials say but may try again in another machine now being turned out at the field.

PANAMA HATS MAY BE SOURCES OF TROUBLE IN CASES OF ASTHMA

Watermelon, Calsoline, and Feathers Also Irritating

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 22.—Hay fever or asthma patients, who are at a loss to explain the regular recurrence of their ailment, may find that the source of their troubles lie in a Panama hat, a watermelon, duck feathers, gasoline, or a host of other articles not common regarded as disease carriers. In explaining how the sensitiveness which produces such ailments varies with persons, Dr. W. W. Dewe of Kansas City, Mo., in addressing the closing session of the American Congress on internal medicine, here today, enumerated many possible sources of irritation and advised physicians to experiment with the patient afflicted until he discovered the toxin causing the reaction.

"I know a man who was perennially beset with hay fever," said Dr. Duke. "I found that the trouble lay in his Panama hat. He was sensitive to the dust of the hat."

Radium and its relation to internal medicine was described by Dr. Ellis Fischel of St. Louis.

"Radium is in reality stored up energy in the process of eternal disintegration," he explained. "If it were possible to stop this decay to apply it at any one moment in its full strength one gram of the drug (about one fourth of a tablespoon full) could lift the largest battleship in the United States more than 100 feet in the air."

GROUP ELEVEN BANKERS MEET IN BURLINGTON

Burlington, Iowa, Feb. 22.—More than 240 bankers of Iowa and guests, connected with Group Eleven, Iowa Bankers association met in Burlington today. Pohn Hamill, lieutenant governor of Iowa, gave the chief address. He advocated the budget system for state and nation, declared for respect and obedience to the law and urged organized marketing to solve the low price problem of farmers.

Reports of Frank Warner, secretary of the Iowa Bankers' association said Iowa banks were sound and in excellent shape and the delinquencies were liquidating.

OHIO DEMOCRATS ARE UNDECEIVED

Cleveland, O., Feb. 22.—Ohio supporters of William G. McAdoo at a conference to be held in Columbus tomorrow expect to decide whether or not a fight will be made to elect delegates from this state to the Democratic National convention pledged to McAdoo.

C. BASCOM SLEMP TO BE HEARD BY OIL COMMITTEE

Will be Asked About Visit to Palm Beach in December

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—C. Bascom Slemp, secretary to President Coolidge, will be called as a witness in the oil inquiry, probably next Monday. This was made known today by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, after he had returned unexpectedly to Washington from a vacation at Pinehurst, N. C.

Mr. Slemp visited Palm Beach last December at the time former Secretary Fall and Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, was there and he probably will be asked if he talked with them about oil scandal.

Other members of the committee said he might be questioned also as to whether he had talked with government officials or others mentioned in the oil cases since the beginning of the sensational disclosures which followed the testimony of Archie Roosevelt on January 22.

Decision to call Mr. Slemp was only one development which came out of hurried conferences which Senator Walsh held with committee members and his colleague, Senator Wheeler, immediately upon reaching his office.

It was stated that Milton E. Ailes, president of Riggs National bank of Washington, probably could be the first witness Monday.

After the examination of Mr. Ailes and Mr. Slemp the committee probably will call in its expert accountants before proceeding with other witnesses.

To Question Banks

Senator Walsh also said officers of the Federal-American National bank and the Commercial National bank, both of Washington would be summoned in connection with the testimony given by Mr. McLean at Palm Beach, that he had given Fall checks aggregating $100,000 drawn on these banks which Slemp's officers were returned to him unused.

Another important witness the committee hopes to examine is Harry F. Sinclair who has just returned from Europe. Senator Walsh said it was his desire to examine Mr. Sinclair regarding his written agreement to pay $1,000,000 to J. Leo Stack, a Denver oil operator and Frederick G. Bonfils, publisher of the Denver (Colo.) Post to satisfy claims against the Pioneer Oil company operating in the Teapot Dome fields.

"We would also like to know about circumstances under which he gave a half interest in 40 acres in Teapot Dome to John C. Schafer," Senator Walsh added.

Sinclair bought out the Pioneer and Belgo companies for $1,000,000 and Senator Walsh said the committee would like to have more information from him about that matter as well as additional light on his loan of $25,000 to Fall three months after Fall retired from the cabinet.

Senator Walsh indicated that the oil committee would continue its inquiry into a report that Mr. Daugherty dealt in a small block of Sinclair Consolidated Oil company stock after he entered the cabinet.

Daugherty No Help

In connection with the agitation for the removal of Mr. Daugherty from the cabinet, Senator Walsh said he might call attention that although the department of justice had a well organized and well disciplined bureau of investigation there had come to him up to this time no hint even of any available witness in the oil inquiry or suggestion that might be of aid in the inquiry.

E. J. Bohney, who obtained from Fall the lease to Naval Reserve No. 1, in California, also may appear before the committee again. Senator Walsh said he had promised to find and deliver to the committee the signature to the note which he says Fall gave him as evidence of the unpaid loan.

Jacksonville really cannot be kept out of the limelight. Rollin E. ## DETROIT'S PROGRESSIVENESS

The city of Detroit is entitled to be called a progressive city. Not content with building for the needs of the present, the business men of Detroit are looking into the future and plans for their latest office building provides for a 200-foot mooring mast which will provide "parking space" for an airship as big as the Shenandoah.

Air transportation is coming in the near future just as surely as steam travel developed. Cities will be forced to provide landing fields and mooring masts to handle this new traffic or they must give place to more progressive metropolitan areas. Detroit is taking time by the forelock.

THE INNOCENT JAILED

For 54 years a certain Frenchman has been held in jail for a murder he did not commit. Investigation of his case which has been going on for some years now reveals him innocent of the crime for which he was incarcerated. He has been vindicated by the French court and damages of 20,000 francs have been awarded him together with an annual pension of 12,000 francs.

No amount of money will give back to this man the 54 years he has wasted in jail but it is a record.

ognition of the contention that a man unjustly held in prison is entitled to damages. In this country men have been imprisoned and later released without the state offering them anything to compensate them for their unjust incarceration. The principle should be generally applied and the man who is held in prison for a crime he did not commit should be amply compensated by his government. In this respect French justice is ahead of in many other lands.

CLIMATE CHANGES

NEA

The climate of the United States is changing. So claims Elias B. Dunn, former weather observer for New York City. Dunn says this change has been slowly but surely taking place since about 1855.

Old settlers in various parts of the country frequently make the same claim, especially in the northern and eastern states. They have in mind the very deep snows of former generations, snows so deep that horses pulled sleighs right over the top of fences, with drifts 10 feet or more.

Weather Bureau officials in Washington, D. C., have disagreed. They say that climate merely moves in cycles—very warm for a while, then very hot. They check up old records and say that, if you take the weather average over periods of 10 years, each, the average temperature of these periods or cycles has never varied more than a few degrees since the first official weather observations were made.

Dunn, nevertheless, is lining up with the old settlers. He is positive that the climate is changing, and he blames the big irrigation projects in the west. About 19 million acres are now under irrigation. This means a tremendous amount of moisture dammed up in what otherwise would be dry country.

Water in a dry country naturally evaporates quickly. This evaporation changes the moisture of the air and, affecting the barometric condition, generates storms which are not only local but go traveling. So, Dunn reasons, we have cloudbursts, floods and general freaks of weather.

Dammed-up water evaporates fast in a dry climate. In the Ohio valley, evaporation is 40 inches a year. It is over 100 inches a year in New Mexico, Arizona and southeastern California.

The old settlers often advance the theory that climate has been changed by the destruction of forests, which formerly stored up a lot of moisture and kept the snow from melting quickly.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Give the Boy Scouts Credit

BY BERTON BRALEY

That rough little, tough little gang of boys
That used to break windows galore,
That defaced our cars with continual noise—
It doesn't act so any more.
What's happened? That bunch used to give us a pang,
We shuddered with fear at its shouts;
What's happened? Why, neighbor, the neighborhood gang
Has gone and joined up with the Scouts!

THEIR leader, whom grown-ups regarded askance
As head of a mischievous crew,
Has found, with the Scouts, just a peach of a chance
To do what he's wanted to do;
He's boss of his troop, and he makes them behave
Without any questions or doubts,
He's learned that he needn't be bad to be brave,
A lesson that's taught by the Scouts.

Oh, boys will be boys; and experience shows
That boys WILL belong to a gang,
But organized RIGHT—as the scout master knows—
Their energy, vigor and time
Will fashion a clean, snappy, likeable troop
From reckless and impish young sprouts;
And that's what's been done with our neighborhood group.
They've gone and joined up with the Scouts!

THE RETURN OF THE JUNGLE

BY ALBERT APPLE

Scientists say that our largest cities, if abandoned, would in 20 years be in ruins, conquered by a jungle growth of vegetation.

Weeds and other forms of plant life that grow wild have terrific vitality. Bitter struggle for existence has given them strength and endurance. That's why weeds choke out a garden unless vegetables are helped in the fight by constant weeding.

The vegetables, pampered and assisted by man generation after generation, have become feeble in powers of resistance. They surrender easily to the weeds, as have the flower gardens that once surrounded the haunted house.

Be thankful for troubles and obstacles. They develop strength of character and wisdom as well as muscles.

Vanishing.
How would you like an America without trees? We're approaching that condition rapidly. In the past year the lumber industry chopped down enough trees to make 25 billion feet of lumber.

Only a fourth of this was replaced by growth. It's just a matter of arithmetic until forests, high up in the list of most valuable natural resources, will disappear—UNLESS trees are planted on a much larger scale. Government can help. But the problem is morally up to the lumber industry now destroying the forests.

A law with teeth might compel them to plant at least one tree for every one felled by the ax.

Delay.
The president takes his job four months after he is elected, because it took that long to count ballots, get word to him and bring him to Washington in the early days before railroads and telegraphs.

When administrations change, these four months are "lost motion," periods of stagnation and uncertainty. Representative White of Kansas officially starts the ball rolling for a constitutional amendment under which presidents would begin their terms Jan. 24. A sensible move. The date should be moved back farther.

Stimulant.
Hudson Maxim started an argument when he declared that

An "electric furnace man" for homes is invented. It's a machine that automatically feeds away the ashes, even shaking the furnace when needed. Similar automatic stokers are already in use industrially.

We seem to be approaching the time when nearly everything will be automatic, people to have no work except manufacturing machines, caring for them, producing and transporting raw materials, and growing food. That'll still be enough to keep us busy.

The earth can never become a loafer's paradise, though a two-hour day is not impossible. Many already have it.

Doc.
A shortage of young doctors, to serve as internes at hospitals, is becoming acute. This didn't strike us as startling until we read that there are 6320 hospitals in the country, with 756,000 beds. Including people who stage their illness at home, at least half a million Americans must be laid up all the time with various maladies. Probably three-fourths of this illness is due to incurable living lack of exercise and fresh air, and improper diet.

illness of Mrs. Della Knopp. Mrs. Henry Vortman of Neelyville spent Thursday at the home of her son, Henry Vortman. Andrew Allen spent Thursday in Mercedia on business.

AGED GREENE COUNTY RESIDENTS ARE BURIED

Remains of Late John Simpson Laid to Rest Thursday Afternoon—Other News from White Hall.

White Hall, Feb. 21.—With funeral services at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon over the remains of John Simpson, veteran of the Civil War, there is removed another of the almost extinct band of old veterans who constitute the membership of the Carrollton post of the G. A. R. Mr. Simpson had been residing in White Hall for the past few years with his daughter, Mrs. Bert Rose, and it was here that his wife died last May. Funeral services were held in the Rose home on Carrollton street, the discourse being delivered by Rev. George M. Hays, pastor of the M. E. church. On account of the condition of the roads, the remains will be taken to Carrollton by train for burial on Friday.

Mr. Simpson was a native of Yorkshire, England, born Nov. 5, 1836. Near the close of the Crimean War, Mr. Simpson joined the 11th Hussars, and saw service at Balaklava and Inkerman. He came to America before attaining his majority, settling near Carrollton where he has since made his home with the exception of a few years in White Hall. He saw hard service through the Civil War as a member of Company G, 59th Illinois Infantry, receiving a wound in the right knee at Perryville, Ky., that caused permanent injury.

Upon returning from the war he and Sarah Fish were married at Carrollton, and of their ten children the survivors are Ann, wife of George Crowcroft, Roadhouse, John J. Carrollton, Lucy, wife of West Rose, White Hall, and Elizabeth, wife of Floyd Pinkerton, Berdan. He was a member of the M. E. church at Carrollton.

Mr. Simpson had been in failing health since the death of his wife last May, and ten days before his death was taken down with an illness that proved fatal. He proved to be an excellent companion and comrade among the old soldiers of White Hall since coming here, as there are more old soldiers at White Hall and vicinity than at any other point in the county, and the only active G. A. R. post. The old veterans who reside in White Hall and vicinity number 21, as follows: A. A. Lorton, W. H. Boggess, L. N. Ballard, John Raines, G. R. Adams, W. C. Baker, J. S. Baker, Jefferson Lawson, John R. Robinson, August B. Smith, A. O. Vos, R. B. Winn, L. L. Wells, Dr. A. W. Foreman, William G. Barnett, David Lemon, Luther Dickerson, Peter Green, T. H. Davidson, Henry Dunham, John Cole.

Funeral services over the remains of William P. Ford, aged nearly 71 years, for several years a resident of White Hall, were held at 2 o'clock Thursday in the Baptist church at Barrow, the discourse being delivered by Rev. William Gailther of Modena. Interment was in the Edwards cemetery, west of Barrow. Mr. Ford was one of the old residents of Northern Greene county, coming to White Hall from Patterson about eight years ago, establishing a home here by purchasing the A. Pierce place on East Lincoln street.

His wife survives, also the following children: Dr. J. Walter Ford, St. Louis; Mrs. Orville Kelly, Mrs. Emmett Edwards, Everett Ford, White Hall and Mrs. J. W. Hyder, Glasgow. Mr. Ford had been under treatment at Jacksonville for nervous trouble for the past year, and there he died last Sunday evening. Short funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Orville Kelly on Worcester street at 1 o'clock, where the remains reposed since being brought from Jacksonville, and were then taken to Barrow.

The passing of another pioneer of northern Greene county is that of the death of Miss Nancy Barnett, who died Tuesday morning in her farm home, eight miles east of White Hall, where she spent her entire life, a span of 84 years. The only survivor of the family is a sister, Mrs. Susan Rucker, residing in Arkansas. The deceased had been blind about 10 years and in a helpless condition for about two years. Funeral services were held in the Union church in the neighborhood on Wednesday, with interment in the church cemetery.

Entire ownership of the White Hall Lumber Co. is now vested in Robert Shaw and his family with the retirement of John W. Steinberg as Mr. Shaw's partner. This company was organized in 1918 and Mr. Steinberg has been connected with it for the past 11 years. Several others have held interest in it, but Mr. Shaw's connection dates from the first to the present without interruption. The concern is located between the C. & A. and the C. B. & Q. railroads, with switching facilities from both roads.

ROLLER SKATING IN NASHVILLE STOPPED AFTER BAD ACCIDENT

Students Indulge in Craze on Streets Till Midnight

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 22.—A craze for roller skating upon the paved streets of Nashville indulged in by students of Vanderbilt University, Peabody College and the preparatory institutions in this city and which has grown to such proportions that the sight of couples skating home from dances after midnight has become common, received a rude setback here tonight when Mayor Hillary A. Howe declared that he had determined to break up roller skating on the streets if he has to employ every police officer in the city. The reason for the action of the mayor arose from the first serious casualty reported in the skating craze when William Hart, aged 17, a student at Peabody College, sustained a fractured right leg late today in an accident on Centennial park.

URGES COOPERATION OF EUROPEAN NATIONS

LONDON, Feb. 22.—(A.P.)—Cooperation of Great Britain, France and Germany was urged tonight by Winston Spencer Churchill, speaking as chairman of a dinner given in honor of the American ambassador and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg by the English-speaking union. Upon such cooperation, he declared, depends their mutual safety and greater prosperity and the lasting peace of the world.

Mr. Churchill's speech in which he chaffed James Henry Thomas, labor secretary for colonies, who sat opposite Mr. Kellogg, was not made up of Anglo-American platitudes as is sometimes the case. He frankly informed the ambassador that the men, women and children did not get down on their knees every morning and thank God for the terms of settlement of Great Britain's debt to America.

Lichens Are Descendants of Prehistoric Growth

The world has more than once been startled by reports that a descendant of the monster animals which inhabited the earth before the Ice age has been seen either lifting its head out of the ocean depths or lurking in the darkness of a primeval forest.

Altho the existence of these reports has been confirmed, but when we come to plant life we find in the lichens real prehistoric growths.

The lichens we can see and examine today are similar to those which existed tens of thousands of years ago.

The growths which spread themselves over rocks and old walls are a combination of a fungus and countless thousands of algae. The fungus, unable to make its own way in the world, has enmeshed huge numbers of green algal cells, living on the food material which they produce.

That many of these plants are tens of thousands of years old is proved by the fact that by scraping away the crust of lichens the abrasions caused by the passage of ice during the glacial period are as fresh as though they had been made recently. The lichen has protected them from the weather ever since. The Glacial age is said by some scientists to have ended over 80,000 years ago.—London Tit-Bits.

PRES. EULOGIZES GEO. WASHINGTON IN RADIO TALK

do everything for ourselves. This is liberty but it is liberty only through the acceptance of responsibility.

Self-government does not purge us of all our faults, but there are very few students of the affairs of man-kind who would deny that the theory upon which our institutions proceed gives the best results that have ever been given to any people.

When there is a failure it is not because the system has failed, but because we have failed. For the purpose of insuring of even handed justice, for the faithful execution of the laws, no institutions have ever given greater promise or more worthy performance than those which are represented by the name of Washington.

We have changed our constitution and laws to meet changing conditions and a better appreciation of the broad requirements of humanity. We have extended and increased the direct power of the voter. But the central idea of self-government remains unchanged. While we realize that Freedom and Independence of the individual man increased responsibility for the individual while we know that the people do and must support the government and that the government does not and cannot support the people, yet the protection of the individual from the power now represented by organized members and concentrated wealth requires many activities on the part of the government which were not needed in the days of Washington. Many laws are necessary for this purpose, both in the name of justice and of humanity. Efforts in this direction are not or the purpose of undermining the independence of the individual but for the purpose of maintaining for him an equal opportunity. They are made on the theory that each individual is entitled to live his own life in his own way, free from every kind of tyranny and oppression.

"We have not yet reached the goal of Washington's ideals. They are not yet fully understood. It is a practical matter, suffered from no delusions. He knew that there was no power to establish a system under which existence could be supported without effort. Those who now expect anything in that direction are certain to be disappointed.

"Under the constitution of the United States there is neither any pauperism nor any order of nobility. Politically, economically and socially service and character are to reign, and service and character alone.

"Such is the meaning of the life of George Washington who came into being nearly 200 years ago. He left the world stronger and better. He made life broader and sweeter."

OCEAN FREIGHT RATES TO BE INVESTIGATED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The increase of ten cents per 100 pounds in Atlantic Ocean freight rates on certain farm products to which Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture has announced opposition has been brought to the attention of President Coolidge. The latter has referred the question to Chairman O'Connor of the shipping board and to Secretary Hoover. Various farm organizations have displayed interest in the rate increase and Senator King of Utah, announced today he would introduce a resolution and speak on the subject in the senate.

The rates apply to an extensive export business of hams, bacon, shoulders, lard and meat products and farm experts declare the increase will be immediately reflected back to the farm producers who at present are receiving low prices for their hogs.

C. BASCOM SLEMP WILL BE HEARD BY OIL COMMITTEE

$100,000, which he made to the oil committee before the law was granted.

Doherty, in a letter addressed to Chairman Leavitt and made public here tonight on his behalf, demands that Senator Wheeler be called before the oil committee for questioning regarding statements made in the senate last Tuesday to the effect that everybody knew Attorney General Daugherty "was the friend of Doherty" and that it appeared his name was "mixed in" the oil scandal.

Chairman Leavitt said tonight he had not received the letter. Doherty wrote that Mr. Wheeler's remarks related directly to the subject matter under investigation by the oil committee far more directly than anything Frank A. Vanderlip had to say in his now famous Ossining speech.

Caustic Editorial Hits Flapper of Century Ago

Do the flappers of 1924 cause our editors to shake their heads and wonder to what the race is coming? Listen to the editor of the Boston Repertory, September 26, 1894, when he delivers a lengthy opinion on women's fashions, says the New Republic, and especially that of appearing "clad in transparent muslin when clad at all."

"With regard to dancing vulgarity has proved equally successful. The Scotch step, the Irish shuffle and the partridge waddle have triumphed over the graceful minuet and elegant cotillon. A strange rage for imitating low life seems the epidemic malady of the age, a compliment which democracy has extorted from us, or else it must be one of those unaccountable freaks which fashion sometimes plays."

A Fitting Job

A newly-made peer insisted on his head gardener taking as an apprentice a lad in whom he was interested.

The lad was very lazy and the gardener was not pleased at having such a youth thrust on him. Some time after, his lordship, walking in the garden, came on his gardener and said: "Well, John, how is my young friend getting on?"

"Oh, he's doing fine," replied the gardener, with a smile; "he's working away there at the very job that suits him."

"I'm glad to hear that," said his lordship. "What may that be?"

"Chasing snails off the walks," was the cutting reply.

STAGES BANQUET

Teachers and Pupils Observe Washington's Birthday in Fitting Program.

Winchester, Feb. 22—Winchester school was very fittingly observed at the Community High School building here tonight when the teachers and pupils of the school gathered for a banquet, which was followed late in the evening by a very interesting program.

The banquet was held in the basement of the school which was very tastefully decorated in colors of red, white and blue. About 135 persons were present for the splendid banquet, which consisted of tomato bouillon, creamed chicken patties, candied sweet potatoes, buttered rolls, pickles, Olives, salads, ice cream and cake.

Mr. Woodson, vice president, presided at the session in the absence of President Albert H. Dolan, who is ill, but in very much improved condition by comparison with a week ago.

Mr. Woodson announced a committee of which W. L. Kober is chairman, to arrange some matters in connection with the Older Boys' conference, and Earl Smith was named as chairman of the committee to arrange for participation in the program at the Inter-City meet in Springfield, April 1 and 2.

The chairman introduced G. P. Crandall of Chicago, who is an international organizer for the Lions club. Mr. Crandall came to the city with the purpose of organizing a local club. Other guests of the day were Fred C. Man, Chicago; C. C. Banks, Pearl, Ill.; J. N. Conover, William Franz and George C. Jacksonville.

Mr. Smith defined steel as "In the broadest sense it is the product or rather the malleable compound of iron made in the crucible, the open air furnace or Bessemer converter." The elements compounded in steel, he said, are carbon, phosphorus, sulfur, silicon and manganese. The statement surprised most of the hearers that pure iron is the softest of metals, even softer than gold, and can only be produced in a very small way and must be kept in a vacuum or it becomes impure.

The banquet was made in the manufacture of steel were emphasized by the suggestion that fifty years ago little was known of the chemistry of liquids, nothing as to solids. Today a chemist can take a piece of steel and tell how much carbon it contains and what are the other ingredients, the manufacturer can then duplicate that formula.

Mr. Smith explained what rust is and then went on to give in interesting detail something about the physical processes by which steel is manufactured from iron ore and the various ingredients, which enter into it.

It was a very plain and interesting presentation of a somewhat technical subject.

Following the banquet a very excellent program was rendered in the auditorium of the high school, before a packed house. Following is the program:

Selection—Orchestra.

George Washington's Maxims—Louis King.

Pantomime—"Cherry Tree"—Albert Saur, Frank Rossa.

Violin Solo—Anella Hamilton.

Tableau—"Betsey Ross and the Flag"—Jessie Hazelrigg, Robert Burns.

Virginia Reel—High school pupils.

Minute Men—George Murray.

Oration—"Paul Revere's Ride"—Fred Land.

Solo—"Old Fashioned Garden"—Olive Walker.

Spirit of the Old and New—Irma Woodall, Martha Leach.

Tableau—"Spirit of '76"—Ewing McDonald, William Van Meter, Muriel Shull.

Pantomime—"Long Ago"—Annabell Moore, Frank Rossa.

Solo—Miss Ruth Buckley.

The audience was very highly pleased with the entertainment and very much credit is due the teachers and pupils.

WHITE HALL WINS FROM BEARDSTOWN

Take Return Game by Score of 28 to 13—Pleasant Hill Next For on March 1st

White Hall, Feb. 22. (Special to the Journal)—In a return game with Beardstown here tonight White Hall High was returned winner by a score of 28 to 13. Beardstown showing more fight than any team appearing on the local floor this season.

In the previous game at Beardstown directly after the present coach, Peterson, took charge of a team playing its first year on the basketball floor. White Hall won 28 to 13, but since that time the boys from the river town have hung up three straight victories and this is the first defeat for them since the previous game with White Hall.

White Hall led all the way tonight but the game was close enough until the last quarter to leave the final outcome in some doubt. The quarter ended 4 to 2; the half closed 12 to 5, and the third quarter ending showed the locals leading 18 to 11. Then to make the game positive the White Hall tossers stepped in and made five field goals in that period, these scores being run up without the services of the regular center, England, who is out of the game on account of scholastic difficulties.

White Hall's next game is with Pleasant Hill here on March 1st. So far this season the coming visitors have won 14 and lost but one game with White Hall not but behind with a record of 10 wins and four losses. As both of these teams will appear in the Jacksonville district tournament in Division "A" it is highly probable that they will demand a certain consideration in the contest for the championship.

The score of tonight's game: White Hall (28) F. G. F. T. T. S. McClure, f. 2 0 4 DeVault, f. 2 0 4 Wear, f. & c. 6 0 12 Hansberger, f. 1 0 2 Joutet, c. 2 0 4 Knight, f. 0 0 0 Kemp, g. 0 0 0 Smith, g. 0 0 2

JOIE RAY ADDS ONE MORE MILE TO VICTORY

BOSTON, Feb. 22.—One more was added to the long string of triumphs of Joie Ray, little Chicago miler, when he won the Massachusetts Legion mile, headline event in the fifth annual indoor track games of the Massachusetts Department of American Legion here today. Altho Leo Larriere of Holycross kept tenaciously close to the Illinois A. C. star, leaving the rest of the field far behind, Ray always led comfortably.

Walter Mulvihill, Holycross entry, captured the Colonel William A. Gaston 600 yards invitation run, winning at the same time, his first leg on the big trophy.

Harvard had an even break in its two relay events with Dartmouth, the Crimson team won easily in the two mile relay, and Dartmouth took first in the mile.

FOUR CONTESTS AT DAVID PRINCE TODAY

Today will be a very busy day on the David Prince basketball floor, four games being scheduled, two this afternoon and two this evening.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Coach Mitchell will send his Red and White squad against both Mercedosa and Chapin, both of them entries in division "B" of the coming tournament, thus giving the two foreign quintets a chance to try out the D. P. floor prior to their appearance in the district contest.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening Routh High and the I. S. D. Tigers will meet in a double tilt on the same floor, and should also prove a pair of interesting contests when it is considered that the East-enders have been going like wild-ire lately, and also considering the fact that Coach Roby Burns is liable to spring a surprise with his Tigers at any time and makes the opposing teams use all of their stuff at all times if they wish to carry away the long end.

POLE VAULT CHAMPS MEET AT ILLINOIS

URBANA, Ill., Feb. 22.—When the pole vaulters go to the pits at the University of Illinois relay carnival Saturday night, March 1, records may fall. The present mark of 12 feet 9 1/2 inches was set by Landowski of Michigan and Merriek of Wisconsin in 1922. Brooker of Michigan won last year, with McKown of Kansas Normal second, and Brooker, Illinois, third. Brooker and McKown tied at 12 feet in the national collegiate and Brownell set a new intercollegiate mark of 13 feet 2 inches in the western conference games. All three will vault.

Other vault entries are Jones, Krieger and Hammann, Wisconsin; Curtin, Marquette; Donahue, Missouri; Bouscher and White, Northwestern; Davis, Nebraska; McHose, Illinois; Lewis and Rhoades, Michigan; Mitchell, Washington; and Roher, Kelly and Osander, Minnesota.

An even greater array will line up for the 75-yard dash. Ayers of Illinois will have to set a terrific pace to retain the championship. He won the event a year ago in 1:07 3-5 and tied the American and carnival records. Captain Brookins of Iowa took second. Brookins, who will compete, has run the 20 yard hurdles in 2:23 2-10 for a new world mark.

Other entries include Erwin, Kansas Aggies, who took the relay in 1:09 4-5 at the Drake Relays; Fisher, who holds the Kansas record in the 220 yard race; Wittman, Wolverine, winner of the conference short dash; Evans of Illinois who has tied the conference mark in the 220, and was barely nosed by Wilson, Iowa, when the latter set a new record of 21 2-10; and Barr and Larden, Notre Dame, and Andewert, of Washington.

Part of the boys will compete in the 300-yard race. Ayers placed a year ago when Wilson, the Iowa speedster established a new time of 31 4-5. Bier of Washington who took second in the conference quarter mile, Cole of Northwestern, and three Missouri athletes, Bond, Smith and Thornberry are entered.

ROUTT WILL ENTER CATHOLIC CONTEST

Coach John Coenen of Routh High has announced that his basketball five has been entered in the National Catholic Inter-scholastic basketball tournament which will be held in Chicago on March 27 to 29 under the auspices of Loyola university.

Thirty-eight teams from all parts of the United States have entered so far and indications are for a much greater list. All Catholic institutions are eligible to contest and on account of the fact that these schools are not eligible for entry in the meets held by the public schools this tournament is likely to draw the best Catholic teams in the country. Coach Coenen has already begun preparations for the trip and from the showing lately made by his hoopers they should have at least a look-in with almost any team at the meet.

TEX RICKARD DENIES SEAT SALE CHARGES

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Charges that Tex Rickard has acted in collusion during the seat sale of the Dempsey-Firpo fight will be considered next Tuesday by the state athletic commission, Chairman George E. Brower said today.

Attaches of the commission are gathering data concerning the case to be presented to the commission next week. Chairman Brower was not prepared to forecast the commission's action but he said that if next week's meeting brought out substantiation of the charges made by Tom O'Rourke, offenders would be punished and possible criminal action taken.

Rickard today reiterated a general denial of all O'Rourke's charges and said he was preparing a further statement to be presented before the commission next week.

ILLINOIS U. WINS FROM IOWA 26 TO 14

Hawkeye Defense Cracks in Second Period and Never Rally to Any Extent Afterwards

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Feb. 22.—Illinois University defeated the Iowa Basketball team 26 to 14 here tonight in a Western Conference basketball game. Close guarding of both teams and a fierce struggle of the Iowa team in the second period almost evened the score. Illinois took the lead early in the game and led at the end of the first half, 14 to 7. Both teams demonstrated an impetuous defense but the Illinois made three sports in the first in the first half and each time scored two baskets before the Hawkeyes checked the attack. Iowa came back strong and held the Illinois scoreless during the first half of the second period and brought the count to 14 to 12. The Hawkeye defense cracked then and the visitors scored six baskets. After that Iowa never had a chance to rally. The Iowa rooters booed Referee Schommer during the whole game. Coach Sam Barry and the Iowa cheer leaders continually called upon the crowd to quit "crabbing" the officials.

Scoring field goals—Laude 2; Jensen 2; Potter 4; Mauier 4; Popken 3; Lipe 1. Foul goals—Laude 1 out of 1; Jensen 2 out of 2; Janse 1 out of 1; Potter 2 out of 3; Mauier 0 out of 2. Personal fouls—Janse 1; Hicks 1; Stillwell 2; Popken 1; Lipe 1.

EVERETT TRUE—By Condo

Much ado is being made of the fact that at 40 Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, is still fighting and doing a good job of it. Jack's favorite pastime at present is brushing aside youthful fighters who insist all they need is a chance at Mickey Walker to gain the title. The fact that Britton is 40 is stressed. The record books state that Jack will be 40 in October. Intimate friends of Jack say that he is closer to 43 than the fair and 40 mark.

Is there any good reason why a fighter who has taken proper care of himself should not be able to hold his own in the fistie game at 40?

Failure of a majority of fighters to take the proper care of themselves at all times is the reason for Britton standing out as such an unusual figure. Fame and hero worship are the besetting sins of most ringmen. Win the fame, often overnight, causes many of them to change their entire mode of living. They throw aside the care and caution that made it possible for them to attain their great physical power and the prestige that invariably goes with it.

Bob Fitzsimmons and Johnny Dundee are to be classed with Britton. Fitz won the heavy-weight title from Corbett when he was around the 35 mark, while Dundee copped the feather title at 30.

The career of Johnny Dundee as a fighter is a most remarkable one, a great lesson to every younger ambitious to win fistie honors. Dundee began fighting in 1910. After over a dozen years of battling, meeting fighters in all classes, usually giving away from five to fifteen pounds, Dundee at the age of 30 won the welterweight title. He became champion at an age when a majority of fighters have retired from the ring or are in the "has-been" class.

Dundee's career is a great tribute to clean living. A believer in the theory that there is no better reason for a real competition, he has made it a point to keep busy. Fighting is a serious business with Dundee. Always in shape to fight he never passed up a worthwhile opportunity.

The fight game is a severe one, physically. However, failure to be properly conditioned often is the reason for a fighter taking much punishment that could otherwise be avoided. Baseball takes a lot out of the athlete, but many of the star players have done their best work between 30 and 40. Take the cases of Johnson, Cobb, Speaker, Collins and many others. True Jack Britton is to be much commended for being able to step along with the best boys of his weight at the age of 40, his status is something of a knock to a majority of the fighters who usually pass out before they reach the 30 mark.

REFUSE TO RELEASE LINCOLN TERRITORY

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 22.—Directors of the Nebraska State Baseball League at a meeting here this afternoon voted five to one to refuse to relinquish to the Western League the territory of Lincoln, Neb., President Richard Grotte announced. The Lincoln club, Mr. Grotte said cast the only vote for abandonment of its territory by the state league, the five other clubs of the league voting to retain Lincoln in the state circuit.

Lincoln business men had sought to obtain the Sioux City club's franchise in the Western League. Western League officials were in session at Lincoln early this week to arrange a schedule when state league heads reminded the class A league that Lincoln's territory rights must be surrendered by the state league before the Western League could take Lincoln into its circuit.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—President Kearney of the Western League said tonight that in view of the refusal of the Nebraska State League to release Lincoln to the Western League, the Sioux City, Iowa, franchise will not be transferred.

President Kearney said the baseball public at Lincoln desired Western League baseball and had raised the necessary fund to obtain the Sioux City franchise. He said that Lincoln undoubtedly would not support a Nebraska state team this season, but would remain out of baseball.

NOTRE DAME MEETS ILLINI TRACK TEAM

URBANA, Ill.—The first track meet for the University of Illinois takes place when Notre Dame comes to the big armory this afternoon.

This will be the fourteenth meet between the universities. Notre Dame has never been victorious in a dual meet with Illinois but her athletes never quit trying and are always eager to engage the Illini, who do not find it easy to book track meets.

With an even dozen monogram men, the Irish team is reported strong. Northwestern was defeated easily and Notre Dame runners showed well in the recent meet of the Kansas City Athletic club. Cox won the half mile in 2:02 2-5, which is fast for the Kansas City track. This athlete won the 800-yard race in the Notre Dame-Illinois indoor meet a year ago and lowered his time recently in the "Gold and Blue" meet, an annual affair between Notre Dame students. Barber is also a good half miler.

Capt. Paul Kennedy, once an Illinois freshman by the way, paced the mile under 4:28 in the Gold and Blue meet and Cox made almost as good time. Bud Barr tied the Notre Dame gymnasium record when he ran the 40-yard dash in :04 2-5 and nosed out Elmer Layton.

McTernan, a sophomore, tied the gym record in the 440-yard race when he led Barr and Walsh to the tape in the fast time of 1:52 1-5. Walsh finished just behind Capt. Paul Sweet in the 1923 meet.

Livergood broad jumped 32 feet 8 inches. Brady is a jumper too, and took first in last year's indoor tussle. Wontland ran his best race in the two mile.

Illinois will meet next competition in the Irish dish men and distance runners. The Orange and Blue apparently have the edge in the middle distance races and in the field events, except the broad jump.

YOUNG OLCOTT ZARN WINS DOG DERBY

ASHTON, Idaho, Feb. 22.—Eighteen year old Olcott Zarn won the 25-mile American Dog Derby here today, his dog defeating those of other veteran drivers. Young Zarn in past races placed well but his win today was unexpected.

Zarn's time was 2:22:40. Warren Cordrington finished second and "Smoky" Gaston, former champion third.

GREB BEATS REEVES
Oakland, Cal., Feb. 22.—Harry Greb, middleweight champion, won a decision in a four round boxing match here today from Jack Reeves of San Francisco. They fought at catch weights. It was announced Greb weighed 164 pounds and Reeves 165.

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 22.—Rockford high school swimming team defeated Parger High of Chicago, in a dual meet this afternoon, 41 to 18. Rockford won five first places in the seven events.

WORK OF DR. MEADE IN EARLY DAYS RECALLED

Faculty Member of Illinois College Medical School One of the Organizers of the National Medical Association

In a recent edition of the Medical Journal, Dr. George Weaver, who is chairman of the Chicago Society of Medical History, has an interesting article on the life of Dr. Edward Meade, a pioneer Illinois physician.

It is mentioned in this article that Dr. Meade while a professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics in the medical school of Illinois college, here in 1846-47, did a great deal of research work with reference to insanity.

It is known in local historical records that some of the earlier residents of Jacksonville, who were instrumental in having the state insane hospital located here, also had something to do with the coming of Dr. Meade and encouraged his work with reference to insanity.

Dr. Weaver's article also says that Dr. Meade was a delegate in 1846 to an assemblage called in New York which resulted in the formation of the National Medical association and at that time was appointed on a committee on medical education. His report was presented at the first meeting of the National Medical association which convened in Philadelphia. Thus it is an established fact that a physician residing in Jacksonville was one of the founders of the American Medical association.

AGED TALLULA MAN DIES AT HOSPITAL

Perry Cheney Brought Here Friday Suffering from Fracture of Leg—Had Sustained Other Injuries in Earlier Years

Perry Cheney, aged resident of Tallula, was brought to Jacksonville Friday afternoon and was taken to Passavant hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the left leg.

A few hours after entering the hospital Mr. Cheney, who was 82 years of age, passed away. The deceased several years ago lost his right leg in an accident and at another time suffered injuries to an eye that caused it to become sightless.

The seriousness of the aged man's condition was realized when he entered the hospital and his death was not a surprise. The deceased has no immediate relatives and friends accompanied him from Tallula here.

IRISH STORY TELLER HIGHLY APPRECIATED

Seamus MacManus Lectures to a Large Audience at Liberty Hall—Relates Many Tales of Ancient Ireland

Before an audience that filled Liberty hall last night, Seamus MacManus, the Irish story teller, held the attention of his hearers for nearly two hours, while he related tales from the ancient fairy folk lore of Ireland. Mr. MacManus has been lecturing on this subject in America for the past twenty five years, and has done much to give to these ancient Irish legends a tangible form in which they may be preserved.

The speaker is one of the last of the Irish story tellers. He learned the classic tales from the minstrels and beggars who roamed the county of Donegal, Ireland, in the days of his boyhood. From the age of seven, he himself could tell these stories with much skill. He has already put most of them into books, where they appear in print for the first time. Like the traditions of many other peoples, these stories have passed for centuries from father to son and have been kept alive by constant repetition. Last night Mr. MacManus told many fascinating fairy tales which are familiar in every corner of old Ireland. He related one of the Irish hero stories, and several animal stories. To many in his audience he brought back memories of the time when they heard these stories from the Irish seers. It is hoped that Mr. MacManus can be secured for a lecture in this city next year, as he made a pleasing impression here last night.

D. A. R. CHAPTER NOW OWNS HISTORIC GAVEL

Is Made From Part of Washington Elm—Presentation Made By State Regent and Accepted By Mrs. Barr Brown For Local Chapter

The Reverend James Caldwell, Chapter, D. A. R., held their annual celebration of Washington's birthday Friday afternoon at the Duncan Memorial Home. The program was one of unusual interest due to the presence of the State Regent, Mrs. Charles E. Herriek of Chicago, and also due to the fact that the Chapter was the recipient of a gavel made from wood taken from the historic Washington Elm at Cambridge.

The Washington Elm fell Thursday, October 26th, 1923, and patriotic and historic organizations all over the country have coveted pieces of wood from this grand old tree. Under this tree George Washington first took command of the American army July 3rd, 1775, and when the army was in camp in Cambridge, Washington had a platform built among the branches of this tree where he would sit frequently and survey the surrounding country.

Through the kindly interest of Mrs. Charles A. Barnes, Jacksonville, who is spending the winter in Cambridge, the local Chapter received the gift of a gavel made from this tree and it is needless to say that the gift is most highly prized. Credit is also due to this courtesy to Mr. John D. Graham of Boston who told the mayor of Cambridge about the Reverend James Caldwell, Chapter, and to Mr. William F. Ross of Watertown, Massachusetts, who made the wood from the tree into a gavel as an evidence of his patriotic interest.

Accompanying the gavel was a letter signed by Honorable Edwin W. Quinn, mayor of Cambridge with a seal of the city attached certifying to the fact that the piece of wood is a genuine portion of the historic Washington Elm in Cambridge, which recently fell, and under which Washington took command of the American army. At the conclusion of the very able and interesting address on the part of the State Regent, she presented the gavel to the Chapter and it was accepted in behalf of the Chapter by the local Regent, Mrs. Barr Brown.

The members of the Chapter feel most grateful to the friends who sponsored the gift of the historic gavel and its possession gives added historical significance to the Duncan Memorial Home.

The program for the afternoon opened with the usual salute to the flag and was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison led by the Chaplain, Mrs. Ensley Moore. Mrs. Carl E. Black, chairman of the tablet committee gave a report showing the maintained and increasing interest in the memorial work.

Madame Collard of the faculty of the College of Music sang a group of songs with great acceptance, her accompanist being Miss Mary Louise Clark.

Then Mrs. Barr Brown, the Regent, introduced Mrs. Miller Weir, Past Regent, as chairman of the afternoon. Mrs. Weir presented the State Regent, Mrs. Charles E. Herriek, who delivered the address of the day. The presentation of the gavel followed and the program closed with Washington's favorite hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past." Mrs. C. A. Johnson serving as accompanist.

THE BIBLE AND ITS MEANING

"The bible is a progressive revelation of God," Dr. Joseph R. Harker said as the opening statement in the fifth talk of his series on the "Essentials and Non-Essentials of Faith and Life," which he is giving from day to day before the student body at chapel exercises.

"God is first revealed to us as a creator," Dr. Harker continued, "as the creator of earth, and culminating in the creation of man, made in the image of God and capable of communion and fellowship with Him. The Bible reveals God as especially interested in man, his daily life, and requiring from him obedience and worship. This is illustrated in the stories of the lives of Adam, Cain and Abel, Enoch and Noah."

"The revelation advances thru the books of the Bible to show us God in a still more intimate relation to man, the guiding influence of His daily life, as in the case of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

"With Moses it advances still further and God gives more definite laws and instructions with regard to worship and sacrifices, especially insisting that there is only one God, and showing himself opposed to every form of idol worship."

"As time went on, it became evident that the Mosaic laws were altogether too formal and that the people forgot the spirit of these laws and were satisfied in the observance of the letter. Then arose the prophets, who with great courage and conviction denounced the formalism of the laws, and taught that God did not want these sacrifices without love and mercy and justice. This brought about a long time conference between the prophets and the priests."

"The final revelation comes with Jesus, who in Himself is a revelation of God in His fullness as a father, loving all who believe and asking from them that they should love him and perfectly trust him, casting out all impurity; that they should love one another without discrimination of race or color or station in life. God is a father, all men are His children, and therefore all men are brothers."

"If we really want a true revelation of what God is we may find the answer in His Son, and if we want to do what God wants us to do, we will follow Jesus."

Dr. Harker will continue with his series of addresses, speaking this morning in detail, on "What It Means to be a Christian."

MAY TRY NEW CROP ON OVERFLOW LAND

H. G. Edwards, manager of nearly two thousand acres of Illinois river bottom land in Scott county, and Robert Forsythe, a mechanical engineer of Chicago, were in the city yesterday and visited different organizations in the city to obtain interest here in getting a demonstration plant established for handling hemp crops. Mr. Edwards believes that hemp may make a better crop for overflow lands than corn and wheat. Since wild hemp grows prolifically on this land, domestic hemp may be expected to grow. Mr. Forsythe has a patent process for separating wood from fiber of the plant and wants to see it tried out.

If a large number of people become interested in the growth of this plant it is thought that the Farm Bureaus of both Morgan and Scott counties would likely cooperate in making tests for the hemp crop.

MERCHANTS RETURN FROM CONVENTION

J. C. Lukeman, E. M. Tondlin, Charles Fawcett and Hutchinson Norris, delegates to the State Retail Clothier's Convention at Chicago, which was held this week returned to the city yesterday after having spent a very pleasant and profitable time at that place. Mr. Norris is not a retail clothier, but a member of the Apparel Club, a traveling men's organization. This club gave a banquet, reception and entertainment to the retail clothiers during the convention which was a very enjoyable occasion.

Mr. Lukeman stated that the convention was a very profitable one, especially in the way of presentation of ideas to those present. The question of the budget system was applied to stocks of clothing to be bought by the retailers, was brought up at the convention and was very much discussed, arguments being made both for and against the proposition.

FORMER RESIDENT DIED IN CHICAGO

William Shields, Long Time Printer, Stricken as He Sat at Linotype Keyboard

A telegram received yesterday by John Shields of East Lafayette avenue, brought news of the sudden death of his brother, William Shields in Chicago. William Shields was a linotype operator for the Chicago News, where he had been employed for a period of years.

His death was very sudden as he was stricken while seated before the linotype keyboard, and passed away almost instantly. The deceased was born April 6, 1868, in Jacksonville and after attending the schools here, became an apprentice printer in the news room of the Jacksonville Courier, and there he remained until he became a journeyman printer and was qualified to take a position elsewhere.

For a period of years he had been resident in Chicago and had long been prominently identified with the Typographical Union there and was considered an expert workman. He was a man of strong character and had the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

Mr. Shields is survived by his widow, one sister and three brothers: Mrs. Mary O'Leary of Chicago, John of Jacksonville, William of Joliet and Daniel of Chicago.

The funeral service will be held in Chicago Monday. Among local people who will attend the services are Mr. and Mrs. John Shields and Miss Alice Shields.

PASSES AWAY ON DAY OF BROTHER'S FUNERAL

James L. Ford of Roodhouse Dies Here at Practically Same Time as Brother's Funeral at White Hall

While funeral services were being conducted for W. Perry Ford, of White Hall Thursday afternoon, Mr. Ford's brother, James L. Ford of Roodhouse, aged 75 years, died at a local hospital. The remains were prepared for burial at the funeral parlors of John H. O'Donnell and taken to Roodhouse where funeral services will be conducted this morning.

The Ford brothers were ill at the same time at the hospital here. They were members of an old family of Greene county. James L. Ford is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Bonnie Ford, at Roodhouse.

DOKAYS PLAN FOR MORE ACTIVITIES

An informal meeting of members of Hiderim Temple, D. O. K., was held last night to talk over affairs of the organization. L. F. Jordan, royal vizier, presided and there were short talks by many of the members present.

There have not been quite as many activities in the temple during the past year as has sometimes been true and the meeting last night was of the booster type, with the thought of creating new enthusiasm and greater activity. After the formal program refreshments were served.

The regular meeting of the temple will be held next Monday night, when officers will be installed. It is planned to have a ceremonial session at no distant date, when a new program will be staged in addition to the regular ritual.

The arrangements for last night's meeting were in charge of L. B. Turner, James Guyette, W. E. Bentley, J. E. Scott and Charles Godfrey.

ENTOMOLOGIST SAYS PEACH CROP RUINED

That Illinois will have practically no peach crop in 1924 was the statement made by J. H. Bigger of the Department of Entomology of the University of Illinois whose headquarters are in Jacksonville. Mr. Bigger states that the freeze this winter when the thermometer dropped to 20 degrees below zero, was entirely too severe for peaches to stand. It is also believed that many peach trees have been killed by the severe weather.

Mr. Bigger states that one spray of oil emulsion, which is a new spray should be used by all fruit growers just as soon as the buds on the trees begin to appear. This will not only control the San Jose scale, but will also assist in doing away with the Aphids, which did so much damage last year.

EAGLES BEGIN PLANS FOR STATE CONVENTION

Plans were made at the regular meeting of the Jacksonville Eagle No. 509, P. O. E., Thursday evening, to send a large delegation to the 18th annual state convention to be held at Springfield next June. This convention will make the eighth year since the Jacksonville Eagles, headed by Jeffries Concert band took a large delegation to Springfield and elected Mr. Correa, worthy state president. The exact date of the convention has not been received here, but it will be held about the middle of June.

As soon as official word comes as to the exact date of the convention, from State secretary James O'Keefe the localerie will start boosting for the Springfield aerie in lauding a candidate in that office. There are now 25,000 Eagles in the state of Illinois and the Springfield convention will probably be the largest ever held in the state.

RED CROSS NOTES

Junior Red Cross Hour is scheduled for March 7th, 7:00 to 7:30 p. m., when Junior story will be broadcast from Daily News Station, WMAQ, stated a communication to Miss Laura McCune, executive secretary of the local Red Cross chapter, from A. L. Shafer, director of Junior Red Cross. "This is especially for Junior members and children interested in the American Indian will enjoy this next radio hour. Each month during the remainder of the school year, the first Friday of the month, 7:00 to 7:30 p. m., will be Junior Red Cross hour."

The letter continues with interesting data in regard to Junior Red Cross work. "A large number of very remarkable portfolios have been exchanged between schools in America and those in foreign countries during the past month. Canada and Central America have just been added to the list of exchanging countries. Have your school taken advantage of this project?"

Foreign schools are preparing exhibits of Dances to Art, Manual Training and Art Work. They wish to exchange these with similar exhibits made by American schools, just such an exhibit as you would prepare for a Parents' Day or a County Fair. There is no better way for pupils to learn of the work of those in other countries and no better way to bring about a feeling of friendly interest. Cannot at least one of your schools prepare for exchange such an exhibit before the close of the present school year?"

"Are you interested in pageantry for Commencement or County Play Day? The Junior Red Cross bureau would like to send you a copy of 'Court of Service.' The Junior Red Cross chairman at Grand Haven, Michigan, where this pageant was produced a week ago, writes: 'The Auditorium seats seven hundred. It was full the first night. This is the universal testimony of schools who have used the 'Court of Service.' 'Nothing succeeds like success. The second night, there wasn't standing room anywhere. I am so proud of the event in its entirety, that I can't write enough good. More schools are developing Junior activities than last year at this time (7,000) more. The lives of 5,500,000 boys and girls in America alone are thus having emphasized for them the spiritual side of education, the principles of sympathy, sacrifice and service. If you wish to see these principles dominate in society, you must introduce them throughout the schools.'"
